

Ms. Meg Kulungowski serves as the Director, Congressional Affairs for the Joint Improvised Explosive Device Defeat Organization (JIEDDO). She integrates information that assists the Congress in understanding JIEDDO policies, actions, operations and requirements needed for the current and future Fiscal Year (FY) Defense Appropriation and Authorization bills. Meg provides oversight and analysis of congressional activities of interest including the status of significant legislation and the appropriations/budget process. She is a recent graduate of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces and previously served as the Senior Legislative Coordinator within the Congressional Budget Liaison office, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Financial Management and Comptroller. Additionally, Meg provided the congressional affairs support to PEO Soldier and worked for Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison, (R-TX). She graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1981, and served as a Military Intelligence officer for eleven years. She is married to Colonel (Ret.) Mark Kulungowski (USMA '80) and they have two daughters (Megan, USMA '06 and Mallory).

LT Megan Kelvington is currently completing a fixed wing aircraft systems transition at Ft Huachuca, AZ and upon completion will be assigned to the 224th Aerial Exploitation Battalion at Hunter Army Airfield, GA. Megan was born at Ft Cambell, KY and has lived in Germany, Korea and several other US locations. She graduated from high school in Springfield, VA in 2002. Megan graduated from the United States Military Academy in 2006. She is Airborne and Air Assault qualified. She is a qualified UH-60 and RC-12 pilot. Megan is married to CPT Michael Kelvington (USMA '05).