Part I: Assets and Income

None

Identify for you, your spouse, and dependent children: 1) assets with a fair market value greater than $1,000 at the close of the reporting period or producing income over $200, and 2) sources of earned income such as salaries, fees, honoraria (other than U.S. Government salary or retirement benefits, such as the Thrift Savings Plan) which generated over $200 in income during the reporting period. Earned income sources of your spouse must be reported if greater than $1,000 (greater than $200 for honoraria). No earned income needs to be reported for dependent children.

Assets include (but are not limited to): stocks, bonds, tax shelters, real estate, mutual funds, pensions, annuities, IRAs, trusts, commodity futures, trades and businesses, and partnership interests.

Exclude your personal residence, unless you rent it out, and deposit accounts in financial institutions. See instructions for additional exclusions.
